

CHRISTIANITY & HISTORY FORUM

Spring Conference 18-20 April 2017

All Nations Christian College, Ware, Herts SG12 8LX

CHF's biennial residential conference will this year – the 500th anniversary of Luther's Reformation – reflect critically on how Protestantism has developed and diversified, struggled and surged, over the centuries from Martin Luther to Archbishop Justin Welby.

- David Bebbington (Stirling) on the mid-Victorian revolution in Methodist home mission
- David Goodhew (Durham) on the resacralisation of London, 1960-2015
- Andrew Atherstone (Oxford) on writing the biography of Archbishop Welby
- Roundtable on major editorial projects (Richard Baxter's correspondence, George Whitefield's correspondence, William Wilberforce's diaries)
- Presentations from doctoral students at Cambridge, Aberystwyth and elsewhere
- Papers on Primitive Methodism, Charles Spurgeon, Cecil Polhill (pioneer of Anglican-Pentecostal renewal), and the Anabaptist Bruderhof Movement
